WEEKLY RECAP

September 19, 2016 – September 25, 2016

Larceny from Grounds

On September 19th officers responded to a report of yard decorations that had been taken within the past two weeks. The decorations were reported to be cement statues. There are no suspects and the resident stated that they would report any further suspicious activity in the area.

B&E/Home Invasion - Residence

On September 20th officers were dispatched to a report of a B&E of an unoccupied residence on Hayden Street. It was determined that a residential a/c unit and a hot water heater were removed from the residence. After canvassing the area, it was learned that two older black male subjects driving a blue Chevy mini-van had been seen at the residence; possibly associated with a restoration company that had been doing work on the residence prior. Detectives are currently working on leads in other jurisdictions that experienced similar incidents.

Disorderly Conduct

On September 21st officers responded to a disorderly male at the Shiawassee Parkview Apartment complex. Upon arrival, it was determined that a resident of the building had been pounding on doors, being belligerent and acting in an aggressive manner. The subject has a history of assaultive behavior and on this occasion was issued a citation for disorderly conduct. The apartment manager was notified and is looking into the eviction process.

Larceny for Automobile

On September 21st Sergeant responded to Huron Valley Hunt Club for a report of an LFA. Officers found that a vehicle belonging to an employee had its window smashed out and purse taken. The purse had been in plain view and contained the victim's identification, cash and credit cards. There were no witnesses to the crime and no suspect information at this time.

OWI

On September 24th a Sergeant stopped a vehicle on Grand River Ave., near Lakeway for an equipment violation. While speaking with the driver of the vehicle the Sergeant noted and learned that the driver had been drinking. The driver was asked to complete field sobriety tests and was ultimately arrested for operating while intoxicated. The passenger was found to be in possession of open alcohol, drug paraphernalia, had a warrant for their arrest, but was cited and release. The vehicle was impounded and the driver taken to the Farmington jail where they remained overnight.
