

Farmington Public Safety Department

WEEKLY SHIFT REPORT

January 16th, 2023, through January 22nd, 2023

CALL TYPE & QUANTITY

TOTAL CALLS	TRAFFIC STOPS	MEDICALS	FIRE CALLS	CRASHES
183	98	15	3	7

OWI	OUID	DWLS	WARRANT	FELONY
1	0	5	10	0

SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Larceny From Auto

On January 16th, Farmington Public Safety responded to the 22000 block of Floral St on a report of a Larceny from Auto. Investigation revealed that the victim's vehicle was involved in a crash several weeks prior. During the repair process, the victim's vehicle was towed to multiple repair shops at the request of the insurance company. During this time the victims license plate was stolen from their vehicle. A report was filed for information only.

Retail Fraud

On January 16th, Farmington Public Safety responded to the Citgo gas station located at 31233 Grand River Ave on a report of a retail fraud of lotto tickets. Investigation led to the arrest of a 44-year-old white male from Livonia. The investigation revealed that the suspect committed retail frauds of lotto tickets at multiple locations in multiple cities over the past month including the same Citgo gas station two weeks prior.

Fraud-Illegal Use of Credit Card

On January 17th, Farmington Public Safety responded to Weather Guard Windows located at 20775 Chesley Rd on a report of a Fraud-illegal use of credit card. The victim reported that the company credit card was utilized four times to make fraudulent charges totaling $2500. A report was filed for documentation.

Identity Theft

On January 20th, a Farmington resident came into the Police station lobby to report they were a victim of an attempted ID theft. The victim reported that an unknown person attempted to use their SSN and email to open a fraudulent bank account; however, the bank flagged the request as suspicious and rejected the account. A report was filed for documentation.

Farmington Public Safety Department

WEEKLY SHIFT REPORT

Larceny

On January 20th, Farmington Public Safety responded to the 33000 block of Alta Loma St on a report of a larceny. The victim reported that an unknown black male, driving a red Jeep stole a decorative snowman statue from the front of their house. The suspect later identified as a 27-year-old male from Detroit was and arrested several minutes later driving the red Jeep approximately one mile away from the location. Additionally, the snowman statue was recovered.