

Farmington Public Safety Department

WEEKLY SHIFT REPORT

March 13th, 2023, through March 19th, 2023

CALL TYPE & QUANTITY

TOTAL CALLS	TRAFFIC STOPS	MEDICALS	FIRE CALLS	CRASHES
166	92	7	2	2

OWI	OUID	DWLS	WARRANT	FELONY
2	0	1	2	1

SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Suspicious Circumstances

On March 15th at approximately 9:00 AM, Farmington Public Safety responded to the 33000 block of Schulte on a report of a possible LFA. Investigation revealed that the vehicle door was not fully closed; however, no items were missing from the vehicle and that there was no damage or signs of forced entry. The incident was closed and classified as suspicious circumstances.

Identity Theft

On March 17th, at approximately 2:30 PM, a Farmington resident came into the police station to report they were a victim of ID Theft. The resident reported that an unknown suspect used their information to open a fraudulent banking account with Bank of America. The account was closed prior to any financial loss, and the case was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Identity Theft

On March 18th, at approximately 4:00 PM, a Farmington resident came into the police station to report they were a victim of ID Theft. The resident reported that an unknown suspect used their information to open a fraudulent account with AT&T resulting in an outstanding balance of $1300. The account was closed, and the case was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Customer Trouble

On March 18th, at approximately 11:45 PM, Farmington Public safety responded to 1-UP bar located at 33316 Grand River on a report of a customer trouble. Investigation revealed that several customers entered the location with personal alcohol and began causing a disturbance. The customers were asked to leave by staff; however, they attempted to leave prior to paying their tab. Staff then informed the customers that police were called. Upon arrival, officers were advised that the customers paid their tab, and all agreed to leave without further incident.