SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Stolen Automobile

On August 2nd a Maplenut resident reported that sometime overnight between August 1st and August 2nd an unknown person had stolen the victim’s 2019 Ford Fusion from his driveway. The victim does not know who stole his vehicle and the crime was not witnessed. The stolen vehicle was recovered by the City of Detroit Police Department and the vehicle was processed for evidence. The incident was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Flee and Elude

On August 2nd an officer observed an older black sport motorcycle travelling on Grand River near Cass passing traffic using the center turn lane. The officer attempted to stop the motorcycle and the driver accelerated to over 85 mph while heading east on Grand River Ave. The motorcycle disobeyed several red lights and the pursuit was terminated due to traffic safety concerns.

Attempt Scam

On August 3rd a Lakeway resident came into the police department to report a scam. The victim advised that he had met a woman over the internet via the Reddit App. During his talks with the suspect, she advised him that her bank account was hacked and that she needed money for groceries. On two separate occasions the victim sent the suspect $100 prepaid gift cards for the groceries. The suspect sent the victim a check for $4,875 and requested that he cash the check, keep $300, and send the remainder to her via a bitcoin account. The victim did attempt to cash the check, but did not send the money because he realized that he was being scammed. A report was taken.

Identity Theft

On August 5th a Farmington business owner reported that her business email had been hacked and that she was no longer receiving any emails. The victim further noted that an American Express card was opened in the victim's name with out her permission. The case was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Fraud

On August 6th a Chatham Hills resident reported at the police desk that he was the victim of a fraud. The victim reports that $29,900 was transferred out of his Chase Bank Savings Account to an unknown person. The victim reported the fraud to Chase Bank, who sent the victim to this police department. The incident was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Fraud

On August 7th a Brittany Hill resident reported at the police front desk that she was the victim of a Craigslist scam. The victim reports that she located a pop-up trailer for sale on Craigslist that she wanted to purchase. The victim contacted the seller and was advised to send the seller $1,000 in eBay prepaid cards. The victim sent the gift cards electronically as instructed and then realized that she was being scammed. The incident was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Disorderly Intoxication

On August 8th officers responded to the Colonial Car Wash for a report of an unresponsive male laying in the parking lot. Officers arrived on scene and noted that the man was intoxicated and had passed out next to his car. Officers woke the suspect and noted that a check of his name revealed that he had a conditional bond release from the Livingston County Court prohibiting him from consuming alcohol. The man had a breath alcohol level of .12(6). The man was turned over to his brother and a report documenting the incident was forwarded to the Livingston County Court.
