SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Careless Cook

On November 16th officers and Engine 1 responded to the Heritage Condominium Complex for a report of a fire alarm. Upon arrival officers learned that the alarm activated due to a careless cook. The fire had already been extinguished by the home owner prior to arrival. No further assistance was requested.

Malicious Destruction of Property

On November 18th a Farmington Place Apartment resident reported that his car had been attacked sometime overnight while parked at the Farmington Place Apartments. The victim advised that part of the trim for his vehicle had been pried off of the car. The victim does not know who damaged his vehicle or why.

Hit and Run Accident

On November 20th a Sardis, OH, resident called 9-1-1 to report that his vehicle had just been involved in a vehicle accident in the area of Grand River Ave and Farmington Rd. Officers arrived on scene and learned that a young female driving a grey Chrysler 200 had rear ended the victim and then fled the scene. The victim was able to take a photo of the suspect vehicle and provide it to officers. The incident was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.
