SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Fraud – 10/02/2026

Officers responded to a report of check fraud. The reporting person stated they had recently accepted an online job in the home-health field. The alleged employer sent them a large check, claiming the funds were intended to purchase work equipment. After depositing the check, the reporting person was instructed to withdraw the funds and deposit them into another bank account. After completing the transaction, the reporting person was notified by their bank that the check was fraudulent. The investigation remains ongoing.
